

JOSÉ LUIS MADUEÑO

Production and Performance expanding boundaries

José Luis Madueño is a Peruvian musician that develops his art within several musical styles with the afroperuvian and andean genres as his main fields, introducing them in traditional and contemporary forms through jazz and world music. He has accomplished a unique sound - as composer and arranger as well as performer - that touches the audiences through his recordings and alive performances across the globe and that has been recognized by the international press.

Jose Luis plays different roles in the music business: as Piano and Keyboard performer, playing as soloist and for other artists; as Producer, Composer and Arranger in Recordings, Performances, Movies, Dance, Theater and Television. Likewise he is a well known music teacher in Lima – Peru giving private lessons and workshops.

He also expresses his music through other instruments as guitar, flute, quena, pan flute, cajón, percussion and he has a rising career as a vocalist. His next album will be released on two months and will feature him on this stage. He has performed at jazz, latin and world music festivals in Peru, Chile, Argentina, Brazil, Cuba, Venezuela, Mexico, USA, Spain, Norway, France and Sweden.

Recordings

José Luis Madueño – Chilcano, his first album, recorded and released in the United States by the Latin jazz label Songosaurus, where he introduces his jazz compositions with peruvian styles as lando, vals, zamacueca and festejo. This album has been reviewed with remarkable comments by Jazz Times, Latin beat, Jam Magazine and Jazziz and has guest stars as Alex Acuña, John Patitucci and Steve Tavaglione.

Wayruro, the name and of the band and its only album introduces the music of the Peruvian Andes in a unique style. The band, created by José Luis Madueño (Conductor and Arranger) and Jean Pierre Magnet (Co-Conductor), gives a new approach to the peruvian folk music, developing it in a broad frame with influences from different musical styles of the world. With original and traditional compositions this album has influenced many artists in Peru.

Flight of the Condor by José Luis Madueño is an album that consists of 10 original compositions based on the Peruvian Andes musical roots, created for a peruvian show -of the same name- that has performed at the Nautilus Theater in Sea World, Orlando, Florida for several years. The traditional elements used on these works are combined with contemporary sounds (edited and released by Aedo Enterprises in Florida, USA.)

Navidad Afroandina by José Luis Madueño & Ricardo Silva, published in USA by Goin' Native, introduces the most favorite Christmas songs from around the world in a Latin American (and particularly Peruvian) musical approach featuring the region's traditional instruments and styles. Afroandina Christmas has no precedent in the recording industry. Its unique sound, based on the styles and instrumentation used, refreshes carols songs and allows the listener to enjoy this music beyond the Holiday Season.

Works

MOTION PICTURE. Original score for the silent movies:

- "The cabinet of Dr. Caligari" (Das Cabinet des Dr. Caligari) is a 1920 silent film directed by Robert Wiene from a screenplay by Hans Janowitz and Carl Mayer. It is one of the most influential of German Expressionist films.
- "The Cameraman" is a 1928 American silent comedy directed by Edward Sedgwick and an uncredited Buster Keaton. The picture stars Buster Keaton, Marceline Day, Harold Goodwin, and others. It is considered by fans and critics to be Keaton still in top form, and it was added to the National Film Registry in 2005 as being deemed "culturally, historically, or aesthetically significant."
- "Nosferatu" is a German Expressionist vampire horror film, directed by Friedrich Wilhelm Murnau., starring Max Schreck as the vampire Count Orlok. The film, shot in 1921 and released in 1922, was in essence an unauthorized adaptation of Bram Stoker's Dracula, with names and other details changed because the studio could not obtain the rights to the novel.

TELEVISION. Music Composition for the TV series

- La Captura del siglo.
- Polvo para tiburones

THEATER: Theater and Ballet original scores for the Peruvian groups and workshops: Andanzas and Nosotros.
